WHEREAS, on November 20, 2020, Washington Supreme Court Chief Justice Debra Stephens issued a message to all Washington courts, acknowledging the rise of COVID-19 activity in the State of Washington and requesting all courts reassess “the risk of in-person proceedings and the present ability to mitigate those risks consistent with public health guidance”;

2. The Court finds that a continuance of criminal jury trials is required in the administration of justice. The Court also finds that a serious danger posed by COVID-19 is good cause to continue criminal jury trials, and constitutes an unavoidable circumstance under CrR 3.3(e)(8). Based on these findings, the time between the date of this order and the date of the next scheduled trial date is EXCLUDED when calculating time for trial. CrR 3.3(e)(3).
3. All civil jury trials are hereby suspended until after March 8, 2021.
4. This administrative order and other administrative orders previously issued by the Grant County Superior Court in response to the Coronavirus/COVID-19 public health emergency may be deemed part of the record in affected cases for purposes of appeal without the need to file the orders in each case.
5. The Court understands the pending public health emergency created by the Coronavirus/COVID-19 is a fluid situation that continues to develop on a daily and sometimes hourly basis. Accordingly, the Court will continue to review emerging developments and may issue further administrative orders as necessary.
